

State of the PHYSICIAN Survey Results

Practice management shifts in priorities and skills

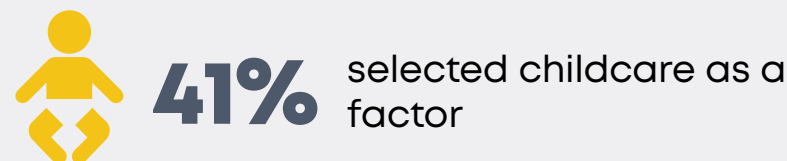

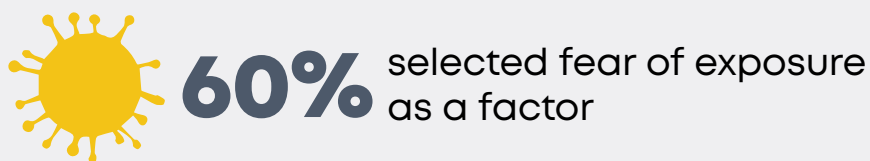

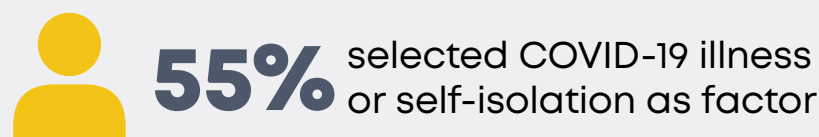

Over 1,100 physicians shared their experiences on changes in practice management as a result of COVID-19. The shifts in schedules, waiting room protocol and staff safety are priorities as we transition together to maintain safety and quality of care within the healthcare community.

The affects of COVID-19 on the office schedule

Many indicated telehealth as having a prevalent impact on office visits

Staff shortages

Sources for testing and information

And mentions of medical publications and peers

Affect of telehealth on administrative staffing and training

Affect of COVID-19 on administrative staff responsibilities

This is the 4th in a series of surveys on the effects of COVID-19 on physicians and their practices. MJH Life Sciences™ is dedicated to creating content that drives decisions and supports physician in improving patient care.

To view all survey infographics go to www.mjhlifesciences.com.

Understanding what matters to you drives our inspiration.

Request the full Survey Results